Can you pledge to read to a child on February 14th?

READ TO ME is celebrating our 8th Annual “Share the LOVE of Books” Read-a-Thon to help raise funds for low-income mothers of newborns in the hospital.

All funds raised will go to purchase books for the neediest families with young children in Colorado! Your donation is 100% tax-deductible!

Ask your friends, neighbors, co-workers, & family members to sponsor you in your commitment to help share the LOVE of books with a child & collect their kind sponsorship that will buy books for children that have no books in their home. No need to go door-to-door to ask for pledges, please.

Read with that special child in your life on February 14th. No little ones around? That’s okay, reading to yourself counts, too!

Send in your pledge form & sponsorship money to READ TO ME, PO BOX 1654, Castle Rock, CO 80104. Please don’t send cash & make all checks payable to READ TO ME. Watch the mail for your prize for participating!

Easy steps to get started:

STEP 1 – Pledge $10 yourself
STEP 2 – Ask 5 friends/family to donate $10
STEP 3 – Ask 4 businesses you patronize to donate $10

By accomplishing this goal you’ll help 10 low-income families have a chance to love books and reading!

Prizes!

Participants that return their pledge form and sponsorship money will receive a FREE kid meal from Chick-fil-a and a daily admission pass to the Miller Activity Complex (MAC).

On February 14, 2018, I will pledge to read to a child in a read-a-thon to benefit READ TO ME. READ TO ME is a CO charity that provides a new children’s book to low-income mothers of newborns in the hospital. Would you please pledge your support by sponsoring my reading commitment and help children that have no books grow up with the chance to love reading?

Please visit www.readtomeco.org to find out more about READ TO ME and how you can help children grow up loving books and reading. Participants, please collect all pledges and submit them to READ TO ME on February 14th. All checks should be made to READ TO ME.
